

cozily: If you lay cozily in bed, you are warm, comfortable and relaxed.

The entire family lay cozily in their beds.

interrupted: If you interrupted something, you stopped it in the middle.

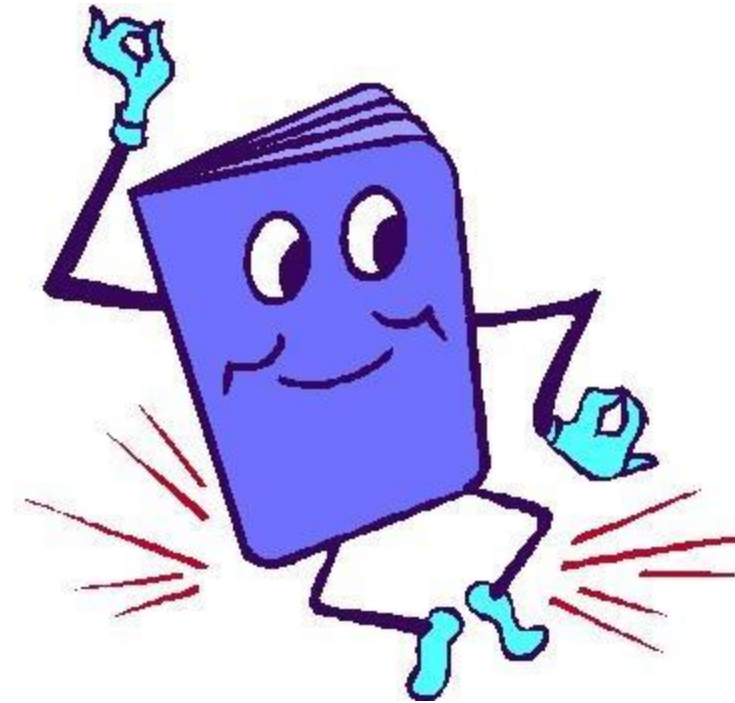

The geese interrupted the walk by going through the main path.

triumphantly: If you say something triumphantly, you say it in an excited way that shows you are proud of what you have done.

The man triumphantly celebrated his new job.

accomplishment: If you have had an accomplishment, you have worked hard to get something done.

It is always a great accomplishment to finish a good book.

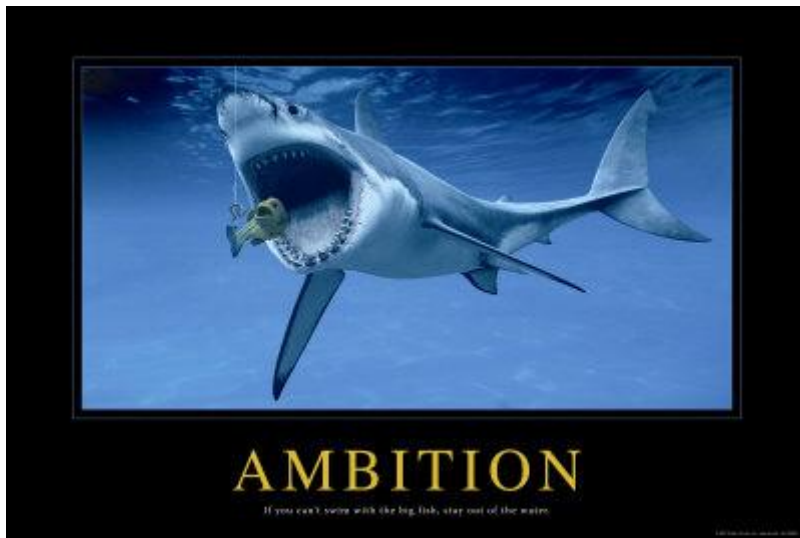

admire: If you admire someone, you think that person is special in some way.

I admire people who work hard and always do their best.

ambition: If you have an ambition, you very much want to do something.

My daughter has the ambition to go swimming with the sharks.