

agreement: When you are in agreement with others, you all think the same thing.

It is important that we are all in agreement about the importance of our class rules.

unnoticed: If you go unnoticed, no one sees you.

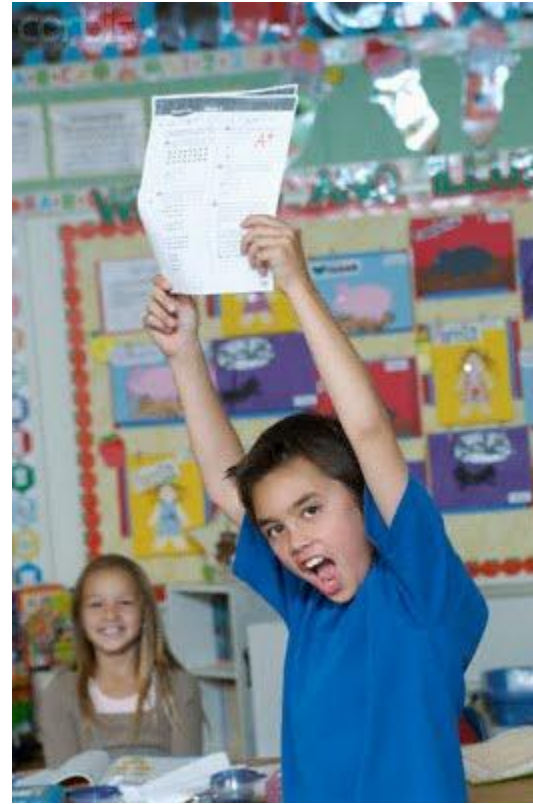

I sometimes enjoy going unnoticed in a crowd of people.

unthinkable: An unthinkable event is something you never thought could or would happen.

It is unthinkable that you would have a mean teacher in this school!

rejoice: If you rejoice, you show that you are very happy.

I love to rejoice with my students when we succeed on a group project.

predicament: If you have a predicament, you have a serious or difficult problem.

My current predicament is that I can't get into the school after hours.

extraordinary: Something extraordinary is something that is very unusual or remarkable.

It is entertaining to see extraordinary animals.