

pleased: When you are pleased with something, you are happy with it.

Marge was pleased with her spelling test grade.

joy: When you feel joy, you feel very happy.

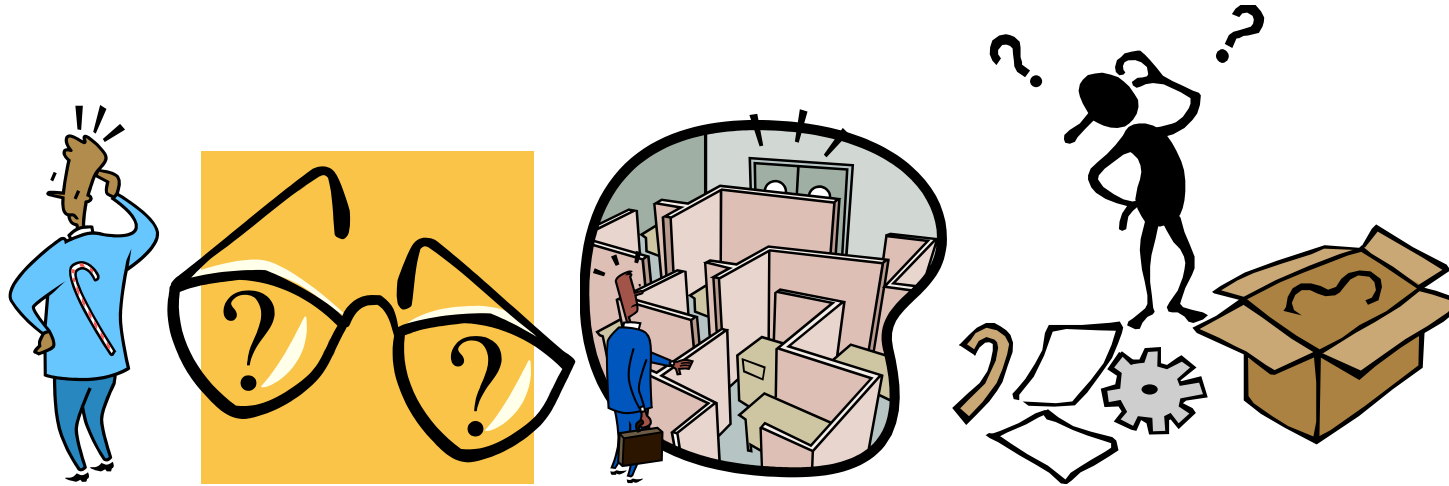

I love to jump for joy when I see improvement in my students!

stammered: If I stammered, I had a hard time speaking. I kept stopping and repeating the same sounds without even knowing it.

I stammered when I was so excited about the great test scores.

puzzling: When something is puzzling, it is confusing.

Sometimes it can be puzzling to put together a new toy.

probing: When you are probing, you are searching for answers.

The doctor was probing the babies' stomach to try to find out what was causing her pain.

unrelenting: When you are unrelenting, you do not give up until you do what you wanted to do.

Page was unrelenting when she asked her mom to take her to the library.