

claimed: If you claim something, you say it is yours.

The girl claimed her space on the game board in hopes of winning!

1st L9

dine: Saying that you dine is a fancy way of talking about eating.

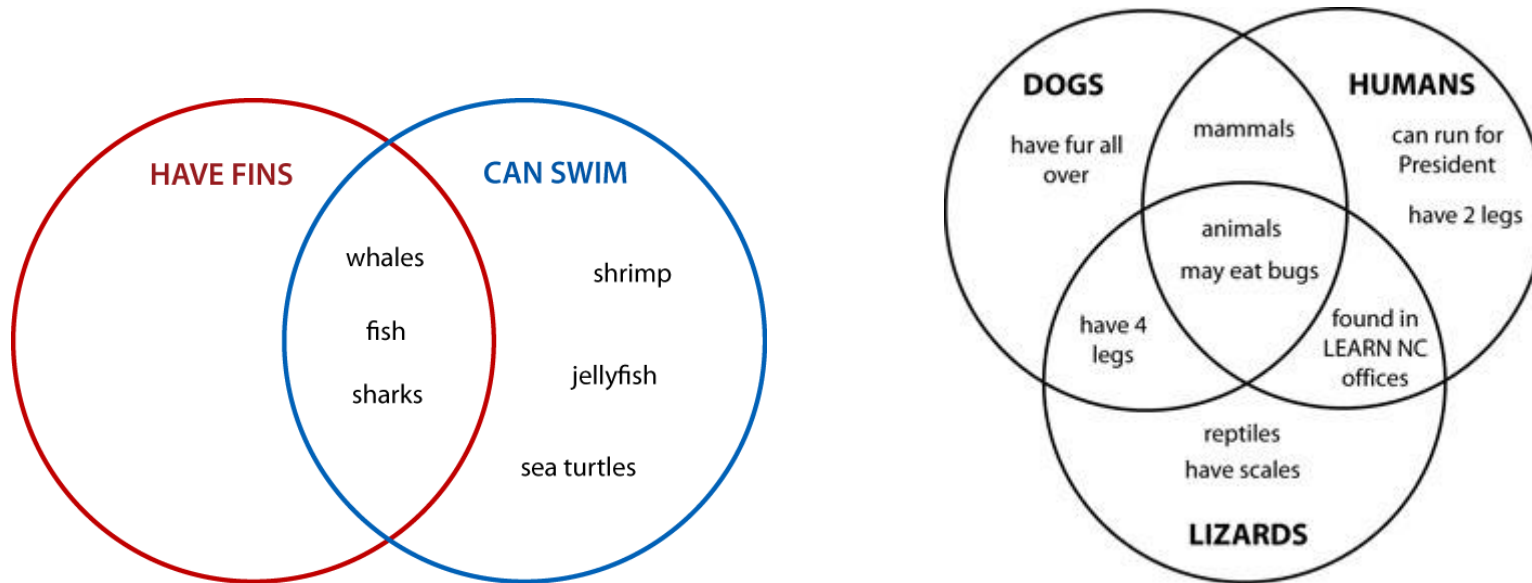

The group was excited to dine in the fancy room at the hotel.

groaned: A person who groans makes a deep sound that shows unhappiness.

Gus groaned when he saw the grade he got on his paper.

classify: When you classify something, you put it into a group with other things like it.

The students worked in pairs to classify the different groups.

function: Something's function is its use. The function of a hat is to cover your head.

The function of a coat is to keep you warm when it is cold outside.

nutritious: When something is nutritious, it is healthful to eat.

Fruits and vegetables are a very nutritious part of our diet.