

resources: Materials, money and other things that can be used.

Miss Ana's class had many resources for the students to use.

Uniforms: Soldiers, police officers, and even nurses dress alike in uniforms so people will know who they are.

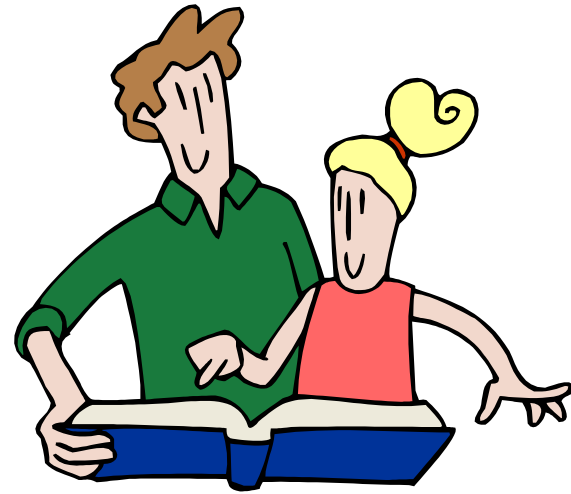

The students put on their uniforms to get ready for school.

chores: Special jobs that you do often.

Max has to mow the lawn and wash dishes as part of his chores.

tutor: Someone who helps you with your schoolwork.

Miss Liz volunteered to be a tutor to some of the students after school.

culture: Your culture is made up of your family's traditions and background.

It is important to respect the culture of every person in our class.

certain: A certain job is one particular job.

Certain people like to work in professions that help people.

proper: something that is right or correct

This is a picture of the proper way to set a table.

3rd L3

boarding: to take someone in and give him or her a temporary place to live

This is a proper boarding kennel for a dog or cat.

literacy: the ability to read and write

It is very important to have strong literacy skills.

diverse: means “different”

Our school has diverse students that enjoy many different activities.