

charging: describes the way an animal rushes toward something or someone

The animals were charging at the tour bus.

ferocious: extremely fierce

Which animal is more ferocious?

signal: A signal is a sound or action that sends a message.

Which signal would a person use if he wanted to stop someone?

flick: When you flick something, you move it or snap it quickly.

It is important to flick the light switch off when you leave the room.

alert: If you alert someone, you warn that person.

When a child is missing, they sometimes use the Amber Alert system.

communicate: When two people or animals communicate, they tell each other things.

It is important to communicate with others so they know how you feel.

3rd L8

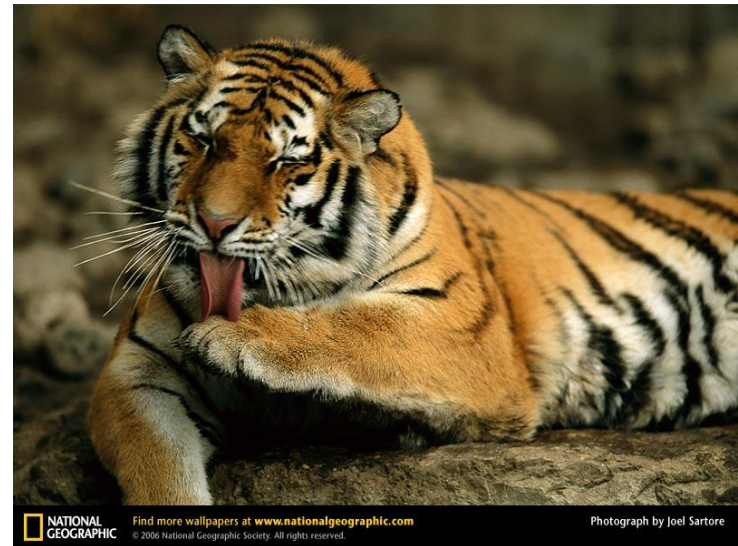

chatter: When animals chatter, they make noises over and over again.

Did you hear the birds chatter outside the window?

D Palm 2010

grooms: When an animal grooms itself, it makes itself neat and clean.

The tiger grooms itself while the monkeys groom each other.

dominant: someone or something is the strongest.

Is there a dominant dog in these pictures?

conflict: a fight between two animals or people

Who do you think will win the conflict between the cat and the mouse?